

Airport Minority Advisory Council Foundation

2020 Scholarship Application

Dear Applicant,

The AMAC Foundation Scholarship Program grants scholarships each year to several students who meet the eligibility and requirements listed below. Students can apply for the AMAC Legacy Award, with a referral from a member of AMAC, or the Aviation and Professional Development Scholarship. In addition, there are sponsored scholarships that will be awarded using the same requirements and criteria for the AMAC Scholarships.

Please keep Eligibility, Ongoing Commitment, and Instructions sheet for your records.

Eligibility

- The applicant must demonstrate an interest and desire to pursue a career in the aviation/airport industry and seeking a degree in Aviation, Business Administration, Accounting, Architecture, Engineering, Communications or Finance.
- Must be a high school student accepted, an undergraduate or graduate student enrolled at an approved accredited college or university with a minimum GPA of 2.5.
- Involvement in community activities and extracurricular activities.
- A commitment to involvement in furthering the mission of the Airport Minority Advisory Council by participating in the AMAC Student Program.
- Successfully complete and submit application materials as further outlined.
- Must be a U.S. Citizen.

Ongoing Commitment

Scholarship recipients will be required to continually maintain all the eligibility requirements as outlined above during the awarded term AND provide supporting documentation. Recipients are also required to:

- Become a student member of AMAC — annual membership fee is $25.
- Communicate with AMAC during the school year in which the scholarship is awarded. All recipients must maintain an active school email address throughout the year to ensure all communications from AMAC and AMC Foundation are received in a timely manner.
- Submit a quarter/semester progress report and copy of grades to show proof of maintaining required GPA.
- Students must reapply each year — this award is not automatically renewed each year.
- Recipients are encouraged to attend AMAC's Annual Airport Business Diversity Conference Atlanta, GA, from June 23 – 26, 2020 — activities specific for Scholarship Awardees will be provided at a later date.

Failure to maintain any of the above commitments may result in the revocation of a recipient's Scholarship. Appropriate action will be taken to ensure repayment of any revoked Scholarship award from the recipient.
