

2025 AMAC Chapter Elections Campaign Guidelines

CAMPAIGN PERIOD – March 10 – April 15

The campaign period will overlap with the voting period, beginning March 13.

Timeline

- Active Membership Status Deadline: February 3 (Encouraged) and March 3 (Required)
- Nomination Period: February 3–March 3
- Campaign Period: March 10–April 15
- Voting Period: March 13–April 15
- Verification: April 18
- Election Results: April 22

Qualifications For Candidacy & Voting

- Must be a member in good standing, which includes:
- National AMAC Membership is current (not expired)
- Chapter Membership is current (not expired) for the Chapter you are running a position for or whose election you are voting in
- No outstanding balances with AMAC National or Chapters
- Are a member in one of the following membership levels:
 - Airport Member Representative
 - Business Member Representative
 - Corporate Member Representative
 - Individual Member
- Members can only run for one
- Members who are members of multiple Chapters can only vote in their selected “HOME” Chapter

Campaign Guidelines

During the campaign period for elective office, candidates are responsible for striving to strengthen and positively promote AMAC and its Chapters. Adherence to the principles of honesty and fairness that candidates should uphold. To manage a campaign under these principles, candidates should:

- Be professional (all campaign literature be prepared and presented professionally, tastefully).
- Ensure that all campaign statements are factual and in good taste.
- Keep the campaign free of smear, personal vilification, slander, innuendo, and character defamation.
- Repudiate any supporter who is unethical in the process.

Campaigning

The AMAC National Office is excited to support your campaign efforts!

- Candidates will be posted to the “Meet the Candidates” section of the AMAC Chapter Elections webpage.

- Candidates are forbidden from using any lists provided to them because of serving as a Chapter Officer.
- The AMAC National Office will email members reminders to vote.
- Candidates are permitted and encouraged to use their social media to promote their candidacy.